THE DAILY AVALANCHE.

Spring Hill college, near Mobile has reopened.

There was but one interment in Mobile from yellow fever Sunday.

John T. Ford, of theater fame, is one of the Baltimare councilmen elect.

General Beauregard is made the recipient of special attentions in the social circles of Washington.

General Pope has ordered the military to assist the civil authorities in collecting State taxes in Alabama and Florida.

The Washington Evening Star was sold the other day for $125,000—a good price for a small sized paper.

At Brownsville the water from the ocean swept up through the streets, as far as the convent, which is some distance back.

In the town of Jackson, Ohio, all the voters—409 in number—voted the Democratic ticket.

The Mayor of Mobile offers a reward of $500 for the apprehension and conviction of any person or persons engaged in causing the recent incendiarisms in that city.

A few days ago a person in Paducah (Kentucky) district filed a petition for the benefit of the bankrupt law, whose liabilities exceed $100,000.

George Peabody has made a donation of $150,000 to Harvard college, for the purpose of establishing a museum and institute of archæology and ethnology.

Gilbert H. Haven, an extensive lumber dealer, residing at Belmont, Chatauqua county, New York, has failed, and his liabilities are some $200,000.

A jury in Jackson county, Mississippi, recently gave $5,000 damages to Mrs. Emma F. Harcourt, for slanders uttered against her character by Mr. George A. Cox.

The cost of living in Australia is said to be not half as much as in England; whilst in England people can live at half the price as in America.

A cargo of cotton, amounting to 1,400 bales, was shipped from Savannah on the 14th of October. This is said to have been the largest single shipment made since the war.

The official returns of the Bank of England show that the amount of bullion in the vaults has decreased four hundred and seventy-five thousand pounds sterling during the week ending October 24th.

Sir James South, an eminent astronomer, one of the founders, and several times President of the Royal Astronomical Society, died at London, Thursday, at the advanced age of eighty years.

Mr. Thomas Hunton was shot and killed at New Baltimore, in Fauquier county, Virginia, on election day, by a man named Fletcher, whom he accused of acting as a spy for the Yankees during the war.

Jas. A. Rhodes, a petitioner in bankruptcy, obtained his final discharge and certificate on Thursday, in New York, being the first obtained in that district under the new bankrupt law.

The Montgomery (Alabama) Advertiser says that the Alabama State notes are eagerly sought after by the people, and readily circulated by them. But few of the notes are being presented for redemption in greenbacks.

At Raymond, Mississippi, the negroes and white Radicals from the surrounding country are daily holding meetings, the negroes being all well armed, and, in some instances, marching in companies under command of regular officers.

Judge Kelly, of Philadelphia, one of the extremest of the Radicals, has come out for General Grant as the Republican candidate for the Presidency. Forney's Press, we observe, also concedes that General Grant will be the Republican candidate.

The Bangor Whig gives an account of a man named Edward Page taking fire from having benzine about his person, and, though water was freely used, the flames could not be extinguished until the benzine was consumed, burning one of the man's legs quite severely.

In Florida an election is ordered to take place on the 14th, 15th and 16th of November next, upon the question of Convention or no Convention, under the Reconstruction acts. Forty-six delegates are to be chosen. The negroes have a lrage majority on the Florida lists of registered voters.

There will be no impeachment, says the Springfield (Massachusetts) Republican, unless Stevens and Butler can carry their scheme of removal before trial, and that is out of the question. A long trial before the Senate, with no certainty that it will end in conviction and removal, is what the Republicans in Congress do not want, and will not have.

General Harney, who is sixty-seven years of age, is six feet three inches in hight, and is as straight as an arrow, and in his younger days used to excel every Indian on the plains with whom he came in contact, in running, jumping and wrestling. He is known universally among the Indians as the "fast runner."

The editor of the New Orleans Louisianais was called upon recently to fight a duel, on account of a typographical misplacement in an article in which the letter "B" (for blanc, white) occurred after the name of a colored delegate, and the letter "C" (for colored) after that of a white member elected to the Convention from the Parish of St. James. He received a slight flesh wound in the calf of his leg.

The New York Hotels during the past year did well. The Fifth Avenue is reported to have made a clear profit of $120,000; the St. Nicholas, $110,000; the Metropolitan, $100,000; the Astor, $75,000; the Brevoort, $60,000; the Clarendon, $50,000; the Gramercy Park, $40,000; the Barcelona (Spanish), $75,000; the Union Square, $30,000; the Everett, $50,000; the Spangler, $80,000; the St. James, $40,000; and the Hoffman, $6,000.

Mr. Charles Dickens has decided to leave England for the United States on the 9th of November, in the steamship Cuba, occupying one of the officer's cabins. He will remain in America until May. His agent, Mr. Dolby, had arranged to sail from England three weeks earlier. Mr. Dickens has just completed his Christmas story for 1867, and is in excellent health and spirits. Mr. Wilkie Collins will take charge of All the Year Round during Mr. Dickens' absence.

Walcott J. Humphreys, Senator from the sixth New York Legislative district, was arrested at Warsaw, Wyoming county, New York, and brought before Justice Cole Saturday upon a warrant charging him with bribery and corruption in office. The warrant charges that Humphreys did feloniously accept $500 to influence his action on the bill pending before the railroad committee of the Senate. The accused gave bail in two sureties of $1,000 each to wait the action of the grand jury in November next.

The Lancastar, (Pennsylvania) Examiner, published at Thad. Stevens' home says: "In accordance with the recommendation of the Republican County Committee, representing the Republican party of Lancaster county, we place at the head of our columns to-day, the name of General Grant, as the Republican candidate for the next Presidency of the United States. In doing so we only carry out the wish of a great majority of the party in the county. There is no doubt that Grant is their choice, as he undoubtedly is of the Union people of Pennsylvania."

LETTER FROM COUSIN NOURMA.

The Effect of the Recent Elections.

To Raise Cereals the Policy of the South

PHILADELPHIA, October 19, 1867.

EDITORS AVALANCHE: Since the election resulted so favorably to the Democracy of this city, the Rads have been unusually quiet and reserved. They feel that their party has no certainty of existence, that their name of Republican is a satire on Government, and that the whirligig of time has brought to them strange revenges. The victors rejoice greatly, and are pluming themselves for the great campaign of '68, at which time a more momentous stake will be at issue than there has been at any other period of our nation's life. In the contest the vitality of the Republic will be tested. Already the Radical leaders assert that the Constitution is not adapted to the present; that it is a fossil instrument of the past; that it has done its duty and must be replaced by modern revisions, which shall be in consonance with the enlarged views and expansive ideas of this age of human progress, universal liberty, suffrage, etc. In this platform is included all the isms that Puritan eclecticism can invent, and that the storehouse of Yankee land can furnish to produce commotion and revolution.

Pre-eminent in the work of misrepresentation, by which the destructive party is operating to procure the ruin of the land, is Forney's Press. It matters not how slight the pretext is, that paper perverts the text and fabricates the most outrageous lies. Daily the amount of abuse and falsehood that is uttered in its columns against the South is not only amazing, but without parallel in the history of journalism.

On the question of finance the party is divided on repudiation according to the popularity of the measure in different localities. The principles enunciated by Spoon Butler are in high favor with a large faction. Those, however, who hold bonds are loud in their opposition and denunciation of the doctrine. But despite the declarations of these malcontents, and despite all declarations of the solvency of the country, there is a wide spread and growing distrust of our financial condition. In anticipation of a crash, the shrewdest operators and capitalists in Eastern cities are investing their bonds in railroad stocks, lands and other secure property. Within the past three months several hundred millions of Government bonds have been sold in such a manner that they are now held by poor people, who cannot afford to lose their investment. One party of Radicals hope by this means to make so many persons interested in the security of the bonds that the question of repudiation will not be received with any favor by the masses. The other party, not having any of the securities, will urge repudiation as a means of freeing from oppressive taxation the great mass of people—especially the poor, who pay taxes and who have no bonds. This faction urge the measure as a popular political policy. The mass of the Democratic party is noncommittal on the question. Some of the shrewdest financiers who are connected with both parties assure me that there is no safety or security for United States bonds. The impression also extensively prevails among business men and the most intelligent politicians of this section, that there will be an entire revolution in the National bank system. It is at present the grandest scheme of villainy that ever was coined by a financier. Seward, Chase, Sumner, and other Radical capitalists are investing largely in Western lands.

I notice by the news reports of the election in Ohio that there were many illegal negro votes cast in that State. When I came North a few weeks ago, there were many negroes on the train, who stated they were from Tennessee, and were going to Ohio to vote. They seemed to be very elate and sanguine of committing the fraud, and stated that they were imported for the purpose. This State has spoken very plainly on the suffrage question. It is evident that the God and morality people of Ohio also have not been educated up to the Puritan standard of equality.

In this city the chief cook and bottle-washer of the Rads is Boker, the rhymester. He is one of the few verse-makers who has succeeded in making politics support him. The Loyal Leaguers, of which he is the well-paid Secretary, have dubbed him their "poet-laureate." He writes resolutions as nearly in rhyme as possible, and his worshippers sing them through their noses as their Tory ancestors sung psalms. Southern trade is not very lively in Radical houses here this season. The West has not purchased half as many goods as it did formerly for the winter trade, and this, taken with the general constriction of the money market, and the utter prostration of all manufacturing interests, cause the Quaker City to look and be a very dead and stupid, overgrown village.

Ristori opens her series of representations on Monday night, at the Academy of Music. In New York she has had a dull season, and did not create any enthusiasm. The books for the Philadelphia season exhibit a meagre account. The prices are one dollar and fifty cents for reserved seats; one dollar for parquette and first circle; fifty and twenty-five cents, the rest of the house. Her manager is Grau. He is losing money. He says: "Ze pipples moos go to zee Ristori ze magnificent, for she have mooch reputatione." He expects to try Memphis at three dollars a ticket.

You will notice by the quotations of prices of cotton, in foreign markets, that there is a strong downward tendency. In view of this, our people will be surely shrewd enough to retain their cotton until the supply becomes short in the markets. At present there is too much tendency to push forward the crop. If the planters can hold it, perhaps, but a few weeks, they will realize much better prices than those which rule at present. There is not enough shipping in the cotton carrying trade to bring a sufficiency of Oriental staple to crowd the Liverpool market; hence a certain amount of supply is demanded from this country, and prices will rise in consequence.

The American crop of this year is estimated at two and a half millions of bales. In New England the storehouses are full of fabrics that are waiting purchasers. Many mills have been stopped recently, and many more are running on half time. Immense quantities of goods, of all descriptions, are in store everywhere, and because of the depression in trade, they are rating at low and very unprofitable figures. There is much gloom in mercantile and manufacturing circles in consequence. In view of this condition, the South should use its cotton wisely, and supply, at stated times, just a sufficient amount to fill the demand while good remunerative figures rule. It is estimated that there will be a sufficient surplus to supply the demand for nearly two years. In consideration of this, and in view of the unreliability of labor for the coming year, it is absolutely incumbent on the planters to cultivate cereals. A fine market is always open, at good prices, for Southern wheat, and it pays much better than cotton. The South can never raise too much corn. There will always be use for every bushel of it, and at good paying prices for all that can be raised.

COUSIN NOURMA.

Charles Sumner, the United States Senator from Massachusetts.

[Correspondence of the New York Express.]

A public man sometimes becomes so public that his private affairs command a publicity which it would be an affectation of the press not to notice. Hence, I send you the following:

Not two years ago, the long known bachelor, Charles Sumner, became a Benedict. A highly educated, and in many respects, an accomplished man, of good manners, and better appearance, naturally enough, he stood high among the ladies of Boston, and he had no difficulty in winning the hand of a widow (from one of the F. F. V.'s of Boston), who sacrificed no inconsiderable jointure in marrying him. The honeymoon had all the apparent charms that honeymoons usually have, when Mrs. Sumner went with her husband to Washington, and new scenes ensued.

Among the accomplished men composing the diplomatic corps in Washington was Baron Holstein, of Prussia, whom the Prussian King had attached to the Prussian legation there, "to spy out the land." Naturally enough, he courted the acquaintance of Charles Sumner, the Chairman of the Committee of Foreign Affairs in the Senate—who, at a dinner party, introduced his wife to the Baron, and who was placed beside her at dinner. An acquaintance ensued, and a friendship followed, such as naturally and honorably spring up between the sexes, with kindred tastes and aspirations. The Baron attended to the lady in matinees and soirees, and in other public places, and occasionally escorted her from the Senate, where both had been to hear the Senator speak. Mr. Sumner, becoming displeased with his acquaintanceship—it cannot be properly called intimacy—wrote a letter to Baron Holstein, in which, while complaining of it, report says he insinuated something not honorable to the wife. The Baron wrote back a letter, in which in substance, he said there was no cause of offense whatever; he had been polite to Madame, as he was to other ladies of similar accomplishments, and nothing had ever happened which propriety or good taste forbade. But if the Senator was not satisfied with that, he was ready to give him any satisfaction as a man of honor demanded.

This correspondence was the beginning and end of part first; but Mr. Sumner, report says, then became cool to his wife, and the lady and the Baron became more reserved in their intercourse. Then Mr. Sumner, as Chairman of our Committee of Foreign Affairs, wrote to the Prussian Minister of Foreign Affairs, the distinguished Bismarck, that if he (B.) would recall the Baron, he (S.) would be obliged. The adroit Bismarck yielded to the potential position of the American Chairman of Foreign Affairs, and the Baron was recalled to Berlin.

Mrs. Sumner next became acquainted with this correspondence, and naturally enough was indignant beyond all power of description. Her indignation naturally rested upon that part of the correspondence which, it was alleged, touched her honor. The end of all this is, that Mrs. Sumner has gone her way to Europe—their common establishment in Washington being given up, and another is taken by the Senator for the winter.

There is some scandal afloat beyond all this, relating both to the Senator and the lady—such as may be expected from early denouments in such a marriage affair—but the basis of the reports in Boston is such as I send you. What I have written is in everybody's mouth, and it may possibly be erroneous in some of the details, but in substance probably correct. I send it to you for publication, because what, if anything, is wrong here, had better at once be set right, to stop the tongues of the thousands that are making more out of a few facts.

TUESDAY'S NOON DISPATCHES.

Late and Interesting Foreign News.

Letter from the Pope to Catholic Bishops.

The Church Assailed by Revolutionists.

Victor Emanuel's Troops Refuse to Fight Against Garibaldi.

Young Italians Flocking to Garibaldi.

ROME, October 28.—The Pope, in a letter to the Catholic Bishops throughout the world, says that the patrimony of the Church has been assailed by revolutionists, and asks them to order prayers in all the Churches for the Holy See.

The police on Friday in searching a house met with resistance, when they attacked the house with bayonets, killed fifteen Garibaldians and took thirty-six prisoners. A quantity of arms and bombs were also captured. There has been fighting to-day half a mile from the city, and great excitement prevails within the walls. The revolutionists are making preparations for a second uprising.

A proclamation has been issued to prohibit the assemblage of over four persons together at the same time. All persons are to retire within their houses and shops to be closed when the signal of alarm is given.

News has been received here that 1000 Garibaldians attacked Viterbo yesterday setting fire to one of the gates. They were repulsed with a heavy loss in general material. It is reported that their leader was the Deputy of Ocerbia, and that he was killed.

The citizens of Rome, including many of the aristocracy, are armed, and patrol the streets during the night.

FLORENCE, October 28.—News has been received here that a desperate battle was fought near Monterondedo on Friday. Garibaldi won the victory. With two battalions he put to flight and pursued the Papal forces, capturing one hundred prisoners and three guns. Many men were killed and wounded on both sides.

General Cialdini has been unable to complete the formation of the new ministry, and has abandoned the effort. Both Ratazzi and General Durando are trying to reconstruct the Cabinet.

TURIN, October 28.—There was a great demonstration in this city on Saturday in favor of making Rome the capital of the nation, and an address to the King of Italy to that effect was adopted.

FLORENCE, October, 28.—Two battles have been fought by the volunteers under Garibaldi. The first took place at Monterondedo; the second was fought farther south, at Torreta. In both of these engagements, which were of the most desperate character, the invaders were victorious. General Garibaldi has now arrived before Rome, with 10,000 men under him.

FLORENCE, October 28.—The young men of Italy are swarming over the Papal frontiers to join Garibaldi. There is a report that Garibaldi received a check at Monterondedo from the Papal troops, who were suddenly reinforced.

PARIS, October 28.—The Moniteur to-day says that the fleet at Toulon had been kept back at the request of the king of Italy, but has now sailed for the Italian coast, because no cabinet has been formed at Florence, and because Garibaldi is menacing the city of Rome.

This action of France is declared not aggressive. Both Italy and France are interested in the preservation of order and the preservation of law. The Moniteur hopes that the entente cordiale between the two nations will not be disturbed.

A banquet was given yesterday by the foreign members of the Imperial Commission of the Exposition Universal to the French members. M. Rouher, minister of Foreign Affairs was present, and made an important and significant speech. He alluded directly to the present crisis in the Italian peninsula, and he hoped Italy would not, under the influence of bad passion, be led to engage in war with France, but that she would emerge from this great national trial purified and a friend of order.

PARIS, October 28.—Garibaldi's force is said to be from 10,000 to 20,000 strong. All the Papal troops have been concentrated, with orders to act on the defensive.

The troops that sailed from Toulon will reach Civita Vecchia this afternoon.

FLORENCE, October 28, p.m.—The soldiers of Victor Emanuel refuse to fight against Garibaldi.

The cause of national unity in the King's council is gaining ground. It is now considered certain that a thoroughly radical ministry will be formed, whose policy will be devoted to making Rome the capital of Italy.

PARIS, October 28, p.m.—The wildest rumors in regard to Italy are circulating here. It is reported that the Italian Crown Prince has put himself at the head of an army to resist the French. Another rumor says King Victor Emanuel will relinquish his crown.

NEW YORK, October 29, 12 m.—Gold opened at 142, and was unchanged at 11 a.m., and is now 142. Cotton dull and prices nominal. Exchange steady.

EDITORIAL

THE PEN IS MIGHTIER THAN THE SWORD.

WEDNESDAY, : : : : : OCTOBER 30, 1867

WE have already announced in these columns the death of E. F. BUCKNER, by his [illegible] hands. A friend who knew the deceased [illegible] golden prime, speaks in glowing terms [illegible] nobility of his character, his intellect, [illegible] breeding, his lofty punctiliousness, [illegible]tiveness, and the splendid qualities [illegible] warm heart. From the notes [illegible] by our friend and the friend of [illegible], we learn that this is not his [illegible] upon his own life. Twenty odd [illegible] while living at Hernando, Missis[illegible] [illegible]ened by calumny and misfortune, [illegible] a derringer pistol to his head and [illegible] the ball glanced, there was a co[illegible] of blood, and reason resumed her [illegible] Again, early in the present year, after [illegible]sidence in Western Texas, having re[illegible] to his old home at Hernando, while on [illegible] to Memphis, stung to madness by "the [illegible] some horrible mystery," which will [illegible]ably never be fully revealed, but in [illegible] may be sure he was more sinned [illegible] sinning, he a second time made [illegible] to end his life, but was again [illegible] for the time. But we see in [illegible] illustration of the old saw, "the [illegible] bears the charm;" for his third [illegible] made among his relations [illegible], has! too fatally succeeded.

[illegible] F. BUCKNER was a native [illegible]—a State of which he ever spoke [illegible] affection—whence, at the age [illegible] he removed to Natchez, Missis[illegible] he prepared himself for the bar [illegible] of his uncle, ROBERT BUCKNER, [illegible] celebrated lawyer of that day, [illegible]wards became Chancellor of the [illegible] settling down to the practice of law [illegible], he married Miss JANE FOX [illegible] of General FOX, of a neighboring [illegible] remained in that part of the [illegible] about 1842, when he removed to [illegible] tarried there only one year, and [illegible]ferred his residence to Hernando, [illegible] successfully labored in his profes[illegible] fifteen years! At the end of that pe[illegible] though possessing a fine practice, he was [illegible] on by many warm friends residing [illegible] to remove to the Western part of [illegible], where, a year or two after his ar[illegible] he was elected judge of the San An[illegible] circuit, which position he filled with [illegible]guished ability and success down to the [illegible] of the war. A year after the close [illegible] hostilities, having lost his "little wife, [illegible]," as he calls her in that mournful fare[illegible] letter, and who, by the way, possessed [illegible] intellect as bright if not so commanding [illegible] own, and being alone in the world—his [illegible] daughter having married an officer of [illegible] United States army, Lieutenant-Colonel [illegible] GRASS, and his only son, TOM, having [illegible]dered far away Southward into uncertain [illegible] or South American regions, and, be[illegible] no more heard from, is probably dead—[illegible] year after the war, Judge BUCKNER [illegible] to his old home at Hernan[illegible] "there," as he fondly declared, "to [illegible] the remnant of his days in [illegible] among the people he loved so well, [illegible] toward whom his heart had con[illegible]tly yearned throughout the whole of his [illegible]journ in the Lone Star State." His wel[illegible] back by those old friends showed that [illegible] fully reciprocated the warm affection he [illegible] them, and the confidence he placed in [illegible]; and, resuming the practice of his pro[illegible] under the most flattering auguries, he [illegible], at three score and six or seven, to [illegible] a new lease of life, with every prospect [illegible] the evening of his days would be peace[illegible], prosperous and happy. But "man pro[illegible]—God disposes." This fair prospect was [illegible] overcast in the strangest and most un[illegible]ted manner. How—why—by what as[illegible]ishing agency this melancholy result was [illegible]ally brought about, his most intimate [illegible]ds probably know; but the story will not, [illegible]not be related here. It is sufficient to say, [illegible] his proud and sensitive spirit was [illegible]ded fatally—past all the surgery of kind [illegible] swift to minister to him in his hour of [illegible]. The old, perhaps hereditary, taint of [illegible] in the blood" was again roused, and [illegible] he resolved on self-destruction, but, [illegible] that for the time, he again tore him[illegible] away from the tried friends of his man[illegible] prime and became a wanderer [illegible] face of the earth. Some time [illegible]ruary of the present year he [illegible]mphis to go—no one knew [illegible]. Many weeks afterwards he [illegible] at Louisville, then in Texas, [illegible] Orleans, and then traveling up [illegible] the Mississippi river, seemingly [illegible], and then again in lower and [illegible]ippi, revisiting the scenes of [illegible]hood, where he first met the [illegible] of his heart, his "little wife," [illegible] without friends or fortune, like [illegible] knight that he was every inch [illegible] leaped into the splendid lists [illegible] legal intellect of that day, [illegible] life's great battle began.

[illegible] the reader's curiosity, (for that [illegible] gratified,) but simply to state a [illegible] we cannot refrain from [illegible] leaving the melancholy [illegible] circumstances pre[illegible] Judge BUCKNER's sui[illegible] [illegible] that you will, [illegible] indeed, a wondrous [illegible] so outre, so startling, [illegible] full of tragical elements, [illegible] different from anything one [illegible] look for in this country in this [illegible], is it in every essential particular. [illegible] after all, though passing strange, the story would not be wholly NEW; for, it is as old as human nature itself, if the records of the Past, as illustrated by the great masters of by both the Tragic and Historic Muse are to be relied on—if those "grand high priests" of humanity builded their immortality on the only sure foundations of Truth. Who is there that has not realized, in his own observation or experience, the fact that the actual occurrences of real life often transcend the wildest imaginations of the sensational story writer and romancist? That farewell letter of Judge BUCKNER's, in the AVALANCHE of the 16th of October, is a strangely mournful document, and possesses, to those who knew him well, an intensely sorrowful significance. It was the last wailing outcry of a crushed and bleeding spirit—of an utterly broken heart, whose every pulsation through life had been manly and unselfish. "Look at this before you condemn me," says the fully resolved suicide; and having looked at it—having read the sorrowful declaration that he had now "no country, no family, no home, no money, no health, no hope" in this life; that he was "old and feeble, and almost a stranger even among his kindred;" that his "spirits were so broken down, he could do nothing useful;" that "if he lived longer, he should be but a burden on friends and relatives;" that his "vital powers were indeed entirely sapped;" and then to hear him speak of "the agonizing strain" upon the whole moral and physical man, caused by the death of his "dear little wife," and "by the loss of the liberties of his country"—thus truthfully piling up the grandest climax of suffering. Reading this strange, sad story, who can say that this cruelly buffeted old man did not have accumulated upon his head, an amount of woe, a very tempest of tribulation, sufficient to warp from its moorings, the strongest anchored reason? And then, that last wonderful paragraph, where he says that he could see nothing in the Bible which forbade him "from ending his life when he could no longer do good;" and when, "if if he lived," he fancied—strange imagination!—that he "must inevitably become hurtful to others!" But, most wonderful of all, is the disclosure that he "had most earnestly prayed to his God to take him away," or if that "was not his good pleasure," then (as he, E. F. BUCKNER, "had the physical power to do so") to "grant him the right in his own will and action" to make an end of himself; that he "might thus do nothing inconsistent with God's holy will!" Strange perversity of the sorely tested, deeply suffering human mind and heart—like "sweet bells jangled and sadly out of tune!" The secret, however, of the whole mournful final tragedy is to be found in the last sentence: "Under these circumstances I feel impelled, by an irresistible impulse, to quit this lonely scene of sorrow and suffering, and join" all the dear ones gone before "in the spirit land." After having given perhaps the best reasons ever man gave before for suicide, he, nevertheless, still goes on to say that he is driven by an irrepressible, "irresistible impulse," an impulse proceeding from within, that he could neither control nor reason with, and which we are bound, in all charity, to conclude had its origin in that deep seated, incurable mania in the blood peculiar to nearly all the victims of self-destruction. It is a sad commentary on the oppressed, downtrodden condition of the Southern people, that two eminent Southerners like Judge BUCKNER and Hon. ELIJAH HISE, of Kentucky, both "full of years and full of honors," should have recently committed suicide, and that both of them should give as a controlling reason for the melancholy act, "the loss of the liberties of their country." "I have now no country," said the one; "I will not survive the liberties of my country," said the other. How many others have been similarly led to contemplate the commission of the same rash act, God only knows; but we may be morally sure that the feeling, more or less modified by age, temperament and condition in life, has very largely existed among a gallant, but unfortunate and foully deceived people, who daily and hourly behold without power or hope of redress, the degradation of the land of their love; the usurpations and persecutions of a fanatical rump Congress, and the constant violations, under color of legislation, of the national parole of honor, solemnly given at the close of the war. But for the hope of some ultimate change for the better, which still lingered (and which thank heaven! has been brightened by the result of the late Northern elections)—but for a self-sacrificing sense of Christian duty which remains with nearly all—there are doubtless thousands who would have resorted to any, the direst expedient of expatriation, or of felo de se, rather than to stand by and witness the slow murder of Constitutional liberty, or acquiesce in the permanent degradation of their country.

But to conclude these desultory remarks prompted by the unhappy death of our old friend: Judge BUCKNER was, without exaggeration, one of the highest toned, noblest principled men we ever knew, or can expect to know. An eminent lawyer, always commanding a full practice in a State renowned for its legal talent, he was also a man of liberal cultivation and educated tastes; fond of literature, and a friend to science and the arts. For some years of his life, he was inclined to dissipation, but his conviviality, resulting as it it did from the warmth of his heart and social feelings, was wholly unselfish, and never ran into anything like beastly excess; nor, did it deleteriously affect, as is too often the case, his inflexible integrity, or tarnish the stainless honor of the man. Always a firm believer in Christianity, toward the close of his residence in Texas he became deeply religious, and attached himself to the church of his choice (the Presbyterian, we believe), of which he remained a member to the last.

Captain Timothy Desey, who made his escape from Manchester with Colonel Kelley, has arrived, and is to have a reception.

Governor Fenton has issued a proclamation appointing November 28th as a day of thanksgiving.

The Herald's Richmond special says General Schofield has replied to the protest of Mr. Gilmer, to the effect that Colonel Ross will be court martialed when Mr. Gilmer's specification to the charges are presented. The question of legality of the election will be left to the Convention. It is rumored that the solution of General Schofield's action in the late election is to be found in the fact that he is a candidate for United States Senator from Virginia.

Several more citizens have been ordered to leave Richmond by a negro vigilance committee for speaking disrespectfully of Hunnicutt and his party. Armed negroes are kept in front of Hunnicutt's office, and prevent any one passing on side walk.

FOREIGN.

FLORENCE, October 29.

Particulars are received of an engagement at Monteteronda. The fighting is represented as obstinate on both sides. At one time the issue seemed doubtful, but at the end of the conflict Garibaldi, who led in person, was completely successful. He immediately followed up his victory, and the defeated soldiers of the Pope fell back on Rome. At latest accounts Garibaldi, with all his army, estimated at 10,000 to 12,000 men, had advanced to the outer fortifications of the Holy city, advices from which say that great agitation exists, as an attack was hourly expected from the victorious Garibaldians.

The Pope has retired from the Vatican, and sought refuge within the castle of St. Angelo.

LATER.—General Menabra has succeeded in forming a new cabinet.

A royal proclamation has been issued by King Victor Emanuel, denouncing Garibaldi, and declaring the policy of France meets the approval of the Italian government.

A Louisville Courier Washington special of the 27th says that President Johnson reiterates his purpose to resist any attempt to suspend him from office before trial and conviction on articles of impeachment, and expresses great annoyance at the telegrams from that city saying he authorized a contradiction of the same, yet, as he hesitates to act as was anticipated by his friends, it is apprehended that nothing will be done to meet the demands of the country.

While laboring under a fit of mental aberration a few days since, Mrs. Norton, of Sedalia, Missouri, seized a razor, took her two little girls, aged respectively one and three years, and cut both their throats, nearly severing their heads from their bodies and causing instant death. Having done this, and not wishing to survive the awful deed, she attempted her own life by inflicting several gashes on her left arm, and one very serious wound on her throat.

A Washington special learns that a bill has been under consideration in the Judiciary Committee of the House for fixing a uniform time for holding Congressional elections in all the States. An effort will be made to incorporate into this bill the system of cumulative suffrage as advocated by leading men in England. It was proposed last session by Senator Buckalew, who attempted, but failed, to have its principles incorporated in the reconstruction bill.

The Government has received information that the President of Mexico will declare all treaties existing between that country and European powers which favored Maximilian, pretensions abrogated, as under some of those treaty stipulations the revenues of Mexico were pledged for the payment of claims to a large amount. It is apprehended that this action will lead to serious complications, and it is urged that the United States should at once enter into negotiations with Juarez, and assume a renewal of the treaty of 1859, and assume a quasi protectorate at least, covering American interests in that country. It is rumored that a distinguished ex-minister will soon be sent as special commissioner to Mexico, to look after these interests.

TEN YEARS' CREDIT!

56 Suburban Lots,

NEAR MEMPHIS,

At Public Sale on Ten Years' Time.

I PROPOSE to sell at public sale, to the highest bidder on THURSDAY, the 14th of November, 1867, about three hundred acres Field and Forest Land, on my Homestead Tract, situated three miles east of Memphis, at the head of Union avenue, and lying between Central avenue and the Old State Line road. The most popular street pavements being now in process of construction in Memphis, good turnpikes or street railways on the roads leading from the city directly through this property, must soon follow, thereby affording the most reasonable probability of its great and rapid enhancement of value.

In stating the advantages of this property, I would specially refer to the HEALTH of the locality as having been always considered equal if not superior to that of any portion of the city environs; while the high character of the neighborhood, and the provision made for CHURCH AND SCHOOL PRIVILEGES, combine to render it one of the most desirable points for a suburban residence which the vicinity of Memphis affords.

The TITLE to this property has been vested in my father and myself for thirty years without interruption, and is free from any incumbrance.

Plans of the Property may be had at the Office of the Auctioneers. The Avenues are opened and the Lots numbered, so as to be examined at any time before the sale.

BEING DETERMINED TO SELL, I shall offer the following liberal

TERMS:

One-tenth Cash, the balance in TEN ANNUAL INSALMENTS, with interest from date. Warranty Deeds given, and Trust Deeds taken, waiving redemption. These terms will make it very easy for any one to secure a pleasant Home, which must constantly increase in value and comfort, as the growth of Memphis continues.

FRENCH MEDICINES PREPARED BY GRIMAULT & COMPANY

Chemists to His Imperial Highness Prince Napoleon.

THESE different medicines represent the most recent medical discoveries, founded on the principles of chemistry and therapeutics. They must not be confounded with secret or quack medicines, as their names sufficiently indicate their composition; a circumstance which has caused them to be appreciated and prescribed by the faculty in the whole world. They widely differ from those numerous medicines advertised in the public papers as able to cure every possible disease, as they are applicable only to but a very few complaints. The most stringent laws exist in France with regard to the sale of medical preparations, and only those which have undergone an examination by the Academy of Medicine, and have been proved efficacious, either in the hospitals or in the practice of the first medical men, are authorized by the government. This fact must be a guarantee for the excellency of Messrs. GRIMAULT & CO.'S medicines.

Dr. Leras' (Doctor of Medicine) Liquid Phosphate of Iron.

The newest and most esteemed medicine in cases of CHLOROSIS, PAINS IN THE STOMACH, DIFFICULT DIGESTION, DISMENORRHEA, ANEMIA, GENERAL DEBILITY and POORNESS OF BLOOD. It is particularly recommended to regulate the functions of nature, and to all ladies of delicate constitution, as well as to persons suffering under any kind of debility whatsoever. It is the preservative of health par excellence in all warm and relaxing climates.

No More Cod Liver Oil—Grimault's Syrup o Iodized Horse Radish.

This medicine has been administered with the utmost success in the hospitals of Paris. It is a perfect substitute for COD LIVER OIL, and has been found most beneficial in DISEASES OF THE CHEST, SCROFULA, LYMPHATIC DISORDERS, GREEN SICKNESS, MUSCULAR ATONY and LOSS OF APPETITE. It regenerates the constitution in purifying the blood, it being the most powerful depurative known. It has also been applied with happy results in DISEASES OF THE SKIN. Further, it will be found to be of great benefit to young children subject to HUMORS and OBSTRUCTION OF THE GLANDS.

Consumption Cured—Grimault's Syrup of Hypophosphite of Lime.

This new medicine is considered to be a sovereign remedy in cases of PHTHISIS and other DISEASES OF THE LUNGS. It promptly removes all the most serious symptoms. The cough is relieved, night perspirations cease, and the patient is rapidly restored to health.

N. B.—Be sure to see that the signature of GRIMAULT & CO. is affixed to the bottle, as this syrup is liable to imitations.

No More Difficult or Painful Digestion—Dr. Burin du Buisson's (Laureate of the Paris Imperial Academy of Medicine) Digestive Lozenges.

This delicious preparation is always prescribed by the most reputed medical men in France in cases of derangements of the digestive functions, such as GASTRITIS, GASTRALGIA, LONG AND LABORIOUS DIGESTION, wind in the stomach and bowels, EMACIATION, JAUNDICE and COMPLAINTS OF THE LIVER AND LOINS.

Nervous Headaches, Neuralgia, Diarrhea, Dysentery, Instantly Cured by Grimault's Guarana.

This vegetable substance, which grows in the Brazils, has been employed since time immemorial to cure INFLAMMATION OF THE BOWELS. It has proved of late to be of the greatest service in cases of CHOLERA, as it is preventive and a cure in cases of Diarrhea.

Ferro Manganic Powder, prepared by Burin du Buisson, approved by the Academy of Medicine in Paris.

A small quantity of this powder in a glass of water is sufficient to obtain instantly an effervesing mineral and gaseous water to be drank at meals, either pure or mixed with wine.

It is a most valuable medicine for persons suffering from Chlorosis, Stomach Aches, and for Ladies suffering from Difficult or Suspended Menstruation. It is especially recommended to persons unable to digest the ordinary medicines containing iron.

This celebrated preparation has the advantage to prevent all tendency to constipation, and to contain a certain portion of manganese, considered by the most eminent medical men as indispensable in cases of treatment by ferruginous medicines.

No More Copaiba and Cubebs—Grimault's Capsules and Liquid Extract of Matico Vegetalis.

Where all other medicines have failed these preparations will always effect a cure. They insure rapid and extraordinary cure of severe, recent and chronic cases of private diseases. They are used in the hospitals of Paris by the celebrated Dr. Ricord, and are found greatly superior to all hitherto known mineral remedies and copaiba and cubebs. The injection is used in recent and capsules in the more chronic cases.

MUNICIPAL COURT.—Adjourned on yesterday over to Tuesday, November 5, 1867.

ON DIT.—We hear from Nashville that a new bank is to be chartered for this city by the present Legislature. It is understood that Mr. Tomeny is to be its President, and it is said to have unbounded resources.

THE SALOON ROBBERS.—Pompey Jackson and James Cobb, who were arrested day before yesterday for robbing the saloon No. [illegible] Union street, were committed yesterday by Justice Hall, in default of $1,000 bail.

REMOVAL.—The offices of the First, Second and Tenth Divisions of the collecting department of the internal revenue will remove to-day to the second story of the First National Bank. This will bring all the offices of this institution in close proximity and much facilitate the transaction of business.

SHELBY CIRCUIT COURT.—Met on yesterday and adjourned over to this morning at eleven o'clock. The jurors will call and claim their attendance and receive their pay. This court will meet in their new room in the Greenlaw building, corner of Union and Second streets.

TRANSFER OF REAL ESTATE.—Moses Bamberger to Solomon Hesse, deed, $4,000, part of lot No. 385, fronting on north side of Commerce street, thirty-seven by sixty-seven feet.

Duncan McLean, trustee, to Ross P. Smith, quit claim, $1,000; lot on north side of Beale street, forty by one hundred and sixty feet.

ROSENBAUM & CO.—This is the name of one of the largest stove and hardware dealers in the city. Their establishment is situated in the Irving block, where everything in their line can be procured as good as the best. They are also agents for the celebrated Petro oil, said to be much superior to petroleum.

RECOVERED.—The clothes stolen from 208 Front street, over Dixon & Co.'s, a few days ago, were recovered yesterday. They were found in possession of Frank Rosch, who, to get at them, had entered the room through a skylight, and took as many garments as he could carry, about $150 worth. Frank, we forgot to mention, is a negro.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY.—Dr. Tully complained before 'Squire Mills of an assault and battery committed at his house by a colored woman, who, after making the assault, decamped at ten o'clock at night with his keys. The doctor was anxious yesterday about them, and we hope he succeeded in having her arrested.

RUNAWAY.—A team attached to a buggy, on Second street, took fright, about five o'clock last evening, and ran at a fearful rate up Second, until coming in collision with a tree, the buggy was shattered, and the horses continued their course, taking Jefferson street to Main, and up Main, until they were halted in front of the Worsham House. They had taken possession of the side walk, creating much excitement.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—The accommodation train on the Charleston road, running to Somerville, ran off the track yesterday morning a short distance from that town. No one, we believe, was injured by the accident; but it was the cause of much annoyance and delay to many of our business men, who spend their nights in the country, as they were compelled to await the arrival of the regular passenger train, which does not arrive till 1:30 p.m.

ARREST OF A MURDERER.—Andrew Jackson, who murdered Chas. Brown some time since in the Hatchie bottom, an account of which was given at the time, was yesterday brought before Justice Miller, and sent to jail. It will be remembered that the murder occurred from a quarrel in regard to some hogs, and as soon as Jackson shot him he jumped on a horse and escaped. He was arrested near the Mississippi line by one of our detectives.

[illegible]mmons & Son, No. 10 Jefferson street and 393 Main street, have received the Waverley Magazine, London News, American Union, New York Citizen, True Flag, Wilkes' Spirit, London Weekly Times, Albion, Broadway Magazine for November, Ladies' Friend for November, London Punch, Police News, Harper's Weekly, Police Gazette, Round Table, New Magazine; also new sheet music, and all the magazines for November; also a lot of writing paper, envelops, and blank books of all kinds. If you wish anything in their line, give them a call.

THE NEW MEMPHIS THEATER.—Last night Miss Melville appeared as "Esmeralda" in the play of that name, and portrayed its beauties with all the perfection of the artiste she is. Her voice was not in as good tone as we have heard it, particularly in the selections for "Jenny Leatherlungs." "Thou Art so Near and yet so Far" was well given, but far inferior to the last time we heard her sing it. Mr. Roche as "Quasimodo," was scarcely as good as we had expected. Mr. Ellerton as "Gringoin," was good. In "Jenny Lind" we also noticed a great falling off in the merits of France, and he fell far behind the mark which he has established for himself. To-night will be produced "Who Killed Cock Robin," and "Pocahontas." Miss Melville in both pieces.

LAW COURT.—Judge J. O. Pierce presiding.—The June term opened on yesterday pursuant to adjournment. The Committee appointed on Monday to report as to the proper manner of disposing of the [illegible] minutes of the term, reported [illegible] the Chairman, Judge Albright, that it was the opinion of the Committee that Judge Pierce had the authority to sign the same. Several leading members of the bar concurred in the opinion of the Committee. Judge Pierce adjourned the June term to Tuesday, November 5, 1867. The following order was entered: "It is ordered by the Court that all parties intending to take appeals or file bills of exceptions as to the June term, 1867, do so immediately, and file the same with the clerk."

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.—This Board met yesterday, and Messrs. Merriman, Hack and Lewis were appointed a committee to confer with a committee of the Board of School Visitors, with reference to the sale of the property belonging to the county, on Shelby street. An appropriation of $1,370 was made to Messrs. McCaffrey & Cornelius, on account of burial of paupers. It was ordered that all bills for gas for the county should be ordered by the Committee on accounts at the end of each month, and a warrant drawn by the President for the amount so audited. A petition of the St. Patrick's Benevolent Association, asking for the use of the Probate Court room, was referred to the Committee on Public Buildings. After passing upon some accounts, the Board adjourned till ten o'clock to-day.

NOTICE.—Ed. Worsham, who abides in our building, is always up to time in the matter of news, and if you will call on him to-day, he will sell you all or any of the following: Scientific American, Frank Leslie (illustrated,) Police Gazette, Waverley Magazine, Wilkes' Spirit of the Times, Base Ball Chronicle, Boys' and Girls' Weekly, Round Table, Phunny Phellow, London News and Times, Broadway Magazine for November, People's Magazine, Land we Love, Atlantic Monthly, Godey's, Leslie's and Peterson's, all for November, Every Saturday (weekly and monthly parts,) Chimney Corner (monthly part,) Waverley Magazine (monthly part,) Harper's Monthly for November, and Phrenological Journal for November.

PERSONAL.—A report was current on the streets yesterday that Mr. Hulbert, chairman of the Board of Aldermen, had succumbed to the prevailing disorder. We are glad this morning to be able to correct this. Mr. H., although sick, is rapidly convalescing. His death was announced yesterday morning in the Municipal Court, which adjourned out of respect to his memory.

Mr. Owen Smith, the well known undertaker, is, we are sorry to learn, lying dangerously ill at his residence, near the State Female College.

The. Hamner, who, it was reported, was killed, a few weeks ago, in an affray with a Jew named Myers, at Union City, made his appearance on our streets yesterday. The story was a canard, manufactured by some of his friends as a practical joke.

John C. Creighton, who returned home day before yesterday, is at the present time suffering from an attack of the chills, contracted either on his way home or since his arrival here.

The funeral of Mr. Kay took place yesterday, at eleven o'clock, and was numerously attended. The Masons and Sons of Temperance were out in force, as he was a prominent member.

Mrs. Wm. Withers, the mother of Wm. Withers, jr., favorably known as the leader of the orchestra at the New Memphis for several seasons, died yesterday morning, and was buried in the afternoon.

Mr. William Templeton, for some time engaged as a printer on one of our city dailies, is now publishing a paper in Almonte, Lanark county, Ontario, in the Dominion of Canada. Templeton was a good printer and a good man, and we hope he will have abundant success in his editorial career.

Smith Lewis, United States Liquor Inspector of this District, and a gentleman universally respected, died yesterday from yellow fever. Mr. Lewis was about fifty years of age, and was a man of sterling character and unimpeachable integrity. The United States has lost a most faithful servant.

MESSRS. EDITORS: On the 24th your local column contains the startling announcement of a "Terrible Railroad Accident," or "Serious Disaster" that might have occurred, had not the "extreme piety" of the undersigned appeased the wrath of deity. Now your correspondent, who is a [illegible] traveler, should be aware that if the accident as alluded to occurred from the cause set forth, he would not now be alive to tell the tale.

This accident could not have occurred from a "spread track." It was the forward truck of the baggage car that ran off. This car was coupled to the engine tender. The rear truck of this car did not go off, neither did either of the three coaches in rear leave the track. Had the track been spread, all the trucks would have left the track. I do not attempt to vindicate or relieve from blame any at fault in the matter; but these [illegible] your traveling correspondent should be [illegible] of. CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

Report of the Cotton Committee Appointed Monday.

A rather slim meeting of the Chamber of Commerce convened yesterday afternoon, at three o'clock, to hear the report of the committee appointed by the Chamber to confer with the United States revenue officers for the removal, as far as possible, of the inconveniences arising from the onerous tax on cotton. The President, Mr. T. A. Nelson, on taking the chair, announced the object of the meeting, and Mr. Henderson Owen read the following as the report of the Committee, which on motion was adopted and the chair appointed the committee:

REPORT.

The committee appointed by the Chamber of Commerce to take into consideration the recent changes in the mode of collecting the cotton tax, and to confer with the collector and assessor of Internal revenue, as to what arrangements can be made, to obviate anticipated inconveniences and difficulties, met at the office of Mr. Thomas H. Allen, at nine o'clock, this morning. Present: Messrs. Henderson Owen, chairman, Thomas H. Allen, F. M. Sales, U. B. Galbreath, and Napoleon Hill, and also Messrs. Saunders, collector, and Mr. Cooper, assessor of Internal revenue.

After a very careful and full interchange of opinions between the committee and the officers of the revenue, during which the latter manifested every disposition to do all in their power to facilitate the operations of the trade, the result of the conference may be summed up as follows:

There will be no objection to the factors paying the tax on cotton.

There will be no objection to buyers refusing cotton on which the tax is not paid.

Buyers must see that cotton is properly taxed, and that the taxes correspond in letters and numbers with the permits.

Permits to be granted for any quantities of cotton, on application.

From the emphasis with which the assessor remarked that when the tags did not conform in all respects to the permits, the cotton was liable to seizure, the committee would suggest the propriety of having the tags protected until the cotton reaches its place of destination.

On the adoption of this report Mr. Nelson called Mr. Henderson Owens to the chair, for the purpose of introducing a resolution, prefacing it with a few remarks of much practical wisdom. Mr. Nelson suggested that the committee indorse the proposition made last year by the New Orleans Chamber of Commerce to the Government at Washington—that the Southern States be made one collecting district, the tax to be collected whenever cotton was to be shipped outside of such district. For instance, at Memphis, when bound up the river; and at all the Southern seaports, when it was seagoing. At Cairo, for the district between Memphis and that city. But when cotton was required to be moved from any point to another within the district, for sale in the district, the tax should not be collected until it was tagged to leave a port of entry. The following is the resolution:

Resolved, That a committee of five be appointed to make such communications to the Secretary of the Treasury and the Commissioner of Internal Revenue as they may think necessary, to relieve the merchants and planters from the many difficulties by which they are now surrounded in paying tax on and shipping cotton, which is seriously clogging mercantile operations, and, unless modified, will increase the oppressions and injuriously affect the prospects of our already overburdened interests.

On motion, the resolution was adopted, and Mr. T. A. Nelson made chairman of said committee.

On motion, the Chamber then adjourned. The chairman then handed us the following names as the committee under the resolution: Thomas H. Allen, A. T. Lacy, S. M. Gates, Sam. Mosby, A. P. Burdett, and T. A. Nelson, chairman.

MEETING OF THE BAR.

Proceedings on the Death of M. R. Hill and D. Nolton.

The Memphis Bar met at eleven o'clock yesterday morning, in accordance with adjournment, to pay a tribute of respect to the memory of M. R. Hill and D. Nolton, Esqs., two of its most prominent and intelligent members, lately deceased.

Mr. E. M. Yerger, with appropriate remarks, offered the following resolutions, and moved their adoption.

Colonel T. Avery, in a very proper speech, seconded the motion, and was followed by J. E. R. Ray, and Colonel Peter B. Glenn, who feelingly spoke of the virtues and honors of the deceased.

The resolutions were then adopted.

The members of the Bar of the city of Memphis have heard, with feelings of the deepest regret, of the death of their late associate and brother, M. R. Hill, Esq. Colonel Hill had been a resident of the city but two years, yet he had resided for more than a quarter of a century in West Tennessee, and had attained so high and eminent a position as a lawyer that his name and reputation were as well known and familiar, when he came amongst us, as though he had resided with us for years. Possessed of extraordinary zeal and industry in the practice of his profession; ambitious to earn the reputation of an able and learned lawyer—at the time of his death Colonel Hill had attained a position which placed him in the front rank of the bar of this State, and has left behind no more eloquent and earnest advocate or wiser counsellor. As a citizen he was public spirited—always [illegible] himself to perform his duty in all respects to his fellow men; honest and conscientious, he won the respect and confidence of all who knew him. In the social relations of life he bore himself so modestly and so kindly that it may be truly said of him, "none knew him but to love him." In the prime of his manhood, in the full vigor of his intellect, and in the midst of his usefulness, he has been called away from us by the inexorable decree of an All-wise Providence, and we are left to mourn over his untimely death. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That in the death of M. R. Hill, the bar of West Tennessee has been deprived of one of its brightest and most gifted members, and the bar of the city of Memphis of one of its proudest ornaments, and the community at large of a most useful and worthy citizen.

Resolved, That we tender our most heartfelt condolence to his bereaved and stricken family, in this the hour of their deepest affliction.

Resolved, That, in token of our regard for his memory, we will wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days.

Resolved, That the secretary of this meeting forward a copy of these resolutions to the family of our deceased brother.

Resolved, That the city papers be requested to publish the proceedings of this meeting.

Resolved, That the chairman of this meeting appoint one member of the bar to present these resolutions to each one of the different Courts of this city, the Supreme Court of this State, and the Circuit Court of the United States, with a request that they be entered upon the minutes of their respective Courts.

George Stahl presented with an appropriate speech the resolutions paying a tribute to the memory of D. Nolton, deceased, and moved their adoption. The resolutions were adopted.

WHEREAS, Our brother, Daniel Nolton, has been taken from our midst to return no more. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That by his death we have lost a genial companion and a kind friend.

Resolved, That while we complain not of the acts of Him whose will was fulfilled in our brother's decease, it is our heartfelt regret that he was not permitted longer to sojourn with us, to be for us a model and an example as a gentleman and a lawyer.

Resolved, That to his family, friends, and more particularly to his heart stricken widow, we tender our sympathies and kind wishes in this their hour of sorrow; and

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the courts of this city, and be furnished to the widow of the deceased.

After the reading of the resolutions they were unanimously adopted.

The following members of the bar were appointed to present the resolutions in respect to the memory of M. R. Hill, to the different courts: J. B. Heiskel, Chancery Court, J. E. R. Ray, Law Court, General Gantt, Criminal Court, John F. Sale, Municipal Court, L. D. McKissick, Circuit Court Shelby county.

The following members of the bar were appointed to present the resolutions in respect to the memory of D. Nolton, to the different courts: George E. Stahl, Chancery Court, S. P. Rose, Criminal Court, H. C. Young, Law Court, S. S. Anderson, Municipal Court.

A MURDEROUS OUTRAGE.

A Man Fatally Beaten while Defending the House of his Dead Friend.

Three men named Luke Mandeville, John Dwyer and James Walton, were yesterday committed to jail by Justice Hall for an assault upon Patrick Mannix, who resided on Brown's avenue, near DeSoto street. The circumstances are, we believe, as follows: A man died near his house, and his wife, having become lonesome, went to the house of Mannix to pass the night, he going to her home to sit up with the dead body. During the night the three men now in jail came to the house in which was the corpse, and after sitting for some time they began taking undue liberty with the things in the room, and were disposed to assume control of it. Mannix remonstrated with them and words followed which finally led to the three men beating Mannix in the most terrible manner. One of his arms was broken, his jaw fractured, and his left eye destroyed. He is said to have presented a most deplorable sight. He was removed to his own house, and a physician called, who attended to setting the fractured bones and dressing his wounds. He now lies in a precarious condition. The three men, Walton, Dwyer and Mandeville, were arrested and taken to the Causey street station, from whence they were transferred to jail without bail.

SINKING OF THE ROWENA.

The Boat and Cargo a Total Loss.

Our readers will regret to learn that the Memphis and White river packet Rowena, commanded by Captain John B. Davis, struck a snag when opposite Helena, on Monday evening, and sunk in eight feet water. No lives were lost. By a dispatch from Captain Davis to her agents, Messrs. Levy & Miller, we learn that she cannot be raised, and will therefore prove a total loss, with the exception of such of her upper works as can be taken off. The Rowena was about five years old. She was built at Cincinnati, originally, we believe, for a Memphis and Cincinnati packet. Captain Davis purchased her this season for the White river packet company, and paid for her [illegible], but had her repaired at a large expense, and at the time she met her death she was in as good condition as when she first was launched. She was valued at [illegible], and was insured in Cincinnati offices for [illegible]. She had on board a cargo of [illegible], which amounted to not less than [illegible]

EXPLOITS OF A BIGAMIST.

Career of Captain J. W. Davis During the Past Two Years.

He Marries Three Wives and Abandons Them All.

From the Cincinnati Gazette of the 26th we glean the following particulars of the operations of a scoundrel during two years of his career. Could we extend our inquiries further, there is no telling what the record would show. Many of our citizens during '64 and '65 will remember this Davis as a Federal quartermaster stationed here. He was about twenty-seven years of age, and is the son of Rev. Wm. Davis, a professor in Western College, Cedar Rapids, Iowa. He married in October, 1865, after a short courtship, Miss Sarah J. Winkley, of Aurora, Dearborn county, Indiana and after the bridal tour to his home in Iowa, and a short honeymoon spent at her father's, he left her to return to Memphis, his leave of absence having expired, as he said. Shortly after his return here, he became acquainted with Miss Isadore Howes, and made love to her, concealing carefully from her the fact of his being a married man. This courtship continued until the fall of 1866, he all the time corresponding with his wife. About this time he was discharged (honorably) from the army, when he proceeded to Aurora, Indiana, where his wife's mother was residing. He staid there but a short time, when he concluded to return to Memphis, and as events afterwards show, to consummate his marriage with Miss Howes. He married Miss H. on the 27th of November, 1866, at the house of her father, Mr. Lewis Howes, and the couple immediately started North, and at Columbus, Kentucky, he wrote an affectionate letter to Mrs. Davis, No. 1, pleading business as the reason of his not writing more frequently to her, and of his inability to return home, and laying out for himself an extended Southern business tour. Notwithstanding this trip laid out in the letter, Mr. Davis went to Cincinnati with Mrs. Davis No. 2, and after a short time went to board at No. 44 West Seventh street. The gentleman with whom they boarded and his family had known Miss Howes (Mrs. Davis No. 2) before, and being entirely ignorant of the antecedents of Captain Davis, treated him and his supposed wife with the utmost kindness, and as members of the family. Davis and Miss Howes lived there as man and wife for three or four months. They then moved to the house of Mr. John Moss, where they stayed until the spring of 1867, when the father of Miss Howes being informed that Captain Davis had another lawful wife, went to Cincinnati to look after his daughter. Captain Davis at that time made it convenient to have business out of town. Mrs. Davis No. 2 went home with her father, telling Mr. Moss and his family that her mother was very sick, and required her services at home. In the forepart of May last Captain Davis thought of the Indiana divorce laws as a means to get him out of the scrape, and, procuring the assistance of a lady of easy virtue, a denizen of a house on East Sixth street, Cincinnati, he went with her to Lawrenceburg, Indiana, and there introduced her to Hon. N. M. Givan, a lawyer, as his wife. He stated that they mutually desired a divorce. Mr. Givan was employed to obtain one, and shortly after, he filed in the Dearborn Common Pleas Court the petition of Mrs. Davis No. 1 for a divorce, the cause being entitled, "Sarah J. Davis vs. Josiah W. Davis;" setting up the marriage with Miss Sarah J. Winkley; and claiming a divorce on the grounds of neglect to support, abandonment and adultery. At first Mr. Givan proceeded in good faith and in the regular order to procure the divorce, but he afterwards learned some things which made him see a "nigger in the fence," and he refused to have anything further to do with it. Davis offered him $1000 to carry on the suit, but he indignantly refused. Davis found the Indiana divorce road a hard one to travel, for on making application to another lawyer—Judge Haines, of Aurora—to carry on the suit, the Judge told him he was well acquainted with Mrs. Davis' mother, and if she was willing he would procure the divorce. This scared Davis out of the Indiana courts and he returned to Cincinnati and wrote to Miss Howes that he had got his divorce all right, and for her to go to Cincinnati; she went and stopped with Davis on John street, Cincinnati. She arrived about the 10th of August. Mr. Moss and his family remaining in blissful ignorance of the affair, received Mrs. Davis No. 2 with great pleasure. But happiness in this world is brief, and the young couple received a letter from Mr. Lewis Howes, the father of No. 2, desiring something tangible in the shape of a divorce. This thing worried the Captain very much; but he told Mrs. Davis No. 2 that he would get her a copy of the record of his divorce from Mrs. Davis No. 1. A short time after he left, saying that he was going to Lawrenceburg, Indiana, to get the record. He returned about midnight, and showed to Mrs. Davis No. 2 a full and complete record of a cause, wherein Mrs. Davis No. 1 had obtained a divorce, duly certified to by John F. Cheek, clerk, and the seal of the court attached. This certificate and seal were undoubtedly a base forgery, as there is nothing upon the records of the court warranting it; and the character of Mr. Cheek being too high to suppose that it was obtained by any other means. Soon after the arrival of Miss Howes, Mrs. Davis found it out, and made a descent upon their happiness, having Davis arrested for adultery. He was released on bail. When the case was called, Captain Davis was not to be found. He had run off, and left Mrs. Davis No. 1 and No. 2, and leaving his bondsman, Mr. Stephens, to pay the bill, $1,500.

A short time after Captain Davis departed, another wife of his turned up from near Vicksburg, Mississippi. She says that she was married to him in 1864, by a chaplain in the Union army, and having in her arms a boy, the fruit of the marriage.

As Captain Davis may again wish to go into the marrying business by wholesale, we think it best to pass him round, and we warn young ladies to beware of him. He is five feet seven inches in hight, spare built, gray eyes, light hair, and side whiskers, and of a pleasing address.

THE FAIR GROUND HOMICIDE.

Death of Johnson—Result of the Inquest

As we supposed it would yesterday morning, the wound of Mr. Johnson has proved mortal. He died on Monday night after much suffering. Coroner Cotton was immediately summoned, and proceeded to empannel a jury of inquest, who, after hearing the evidence adduced, brought in a verdict that Johnson came to his death through a pistol shot wound inflicted by Jerry Woods. The following statement of the case was submitted to the jury by the attending physician:

STATEMENT OF DR. BAYLESS.

Wm. J. E. Johnson died from the effects of a pistol shot inflicted by some one, (I know not whom), but understand it was by a certain man named Jerry Woods. This occurred on Sunday night, October 27, 1867. The pistol ball ranged from the left side, thence passing through the bowels upward to the right, and lodged somewhere in the stomach or right lung. The said Johnson died from the effects of this wound on the 28th instant.

Woods has been in jail since the shooting awaiting the result of the wound, and as soon as the verdict was returned Coroner Cotton issued his warrant to the Jailer of Shelby county for his detention until he can have a hearing, which we understand will take place on Friday.

RIVER NEWS.

AVALANCHE OFFICE,
WEDNESDAY, October 30.

BUSINESS—WEATHER—RIVERS.

Early risers reported a white frost yesterday morning, but the day was warm. Captain McPherson, of the Paragon, reports six feet at Phillips' and five feet at Point Pleasant, the worst place from here to St. Louis. We have no late news from the Arkansas or White rivers, but are safe in saying that nothing important has taken place in those streams since our last. At Louisville and Cincinnati the Ohio is indulging in one of its mysterious but delicate swells, which will, we fear, not do much towards improving that river.

IN PORT.

H. Ames, Myrtil, Norman, Rose Hambleton, Pilgrim.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The Pilgrim did not get away last evening, but will positively leave at five p.m. to-day for Pine Bluff and way points. Captain Tom Berry is master, and our young friend Jimmy Thompson is chief clerk.

The Marble City, Captain Conway, will be in port to-night, and leave to-morrow evening for St. Louis.

The Henry Ames, Captain Frank Hicks, will leave at five p.m. to-day for New Orleans and way landings. She is a splendid packet, and will no doubt have a fine trip. Mr. Crawford is chief clerk and Billy Page, a well known Memphian, is his associate.

The fine low water steamer Norman, Captain Scott, will back out to-day at five p.m. for all points on White river. Mr. Twomey is in the office, and travelers, as well as shippers, will find him an agreeable gentleman.

We learn that the J. S. McCune was aground at Phillips' when the Paragon passed down.

The Abeona, with barges, was also aground at Tiptonville.

—A bill has passed our Legislature which allows no distinctions of color by common carriers. That is, a conductor who don't allow a buck negro to ride in a ladies' car or a steamboat, or don't furnish a wench with a bridal chamber in the ladies' cabin, shall be fined not less than $50 or more than $100. The negro may now exclaim, "Save me from my friends!"

The Peoria City passed up yesterday. We placed her among the departures on Sunday, being misled by a dispatch of her Captain, saying he would be here positively on Saturday evening.

The Rose Hambleton, Captain [illegible], [illegible] roof, will try [illegible]

The M. S. Mepham, Captain McDonald, leaves for New Orleans on Thursday at five p.m.

Jerry Lewis, the well known dealer in steamboat supplies, who was burned out at the fire on Saturday night last, has emerged from the ruins of his old stand, and is again flourishing between Adams and Washington streets, or about one square above his former place.

The particulars of the sinking of the steamer Rowena will be found in our local columns.

Captain Thomas H. Taylor, an old and esteemed steamboatman, died in St. Louis on the 26th, aged sixty-four years.

In the case of Father Bachman, who sued for damages received while a passenger on the General Lytle at the time of the explosion, the jury were unable to agree upon a verdict, and were discharged Saturday.

Norman Loughlin, pilot of the Fanny Scott, together with the engineer and watchman of the same steamer, were arrested at St. Louis for beating a negro, who is not expected to live.

The Secretary of War was authorized by Congress, at the last session, to build and operate two dredge boats for the purpose of deepening and keeping open the channel of one or more of the passes at the mouth of the Mississippi river. Under this authority the Secretary has entered into a contract with a Boston firm for the construction of one of these vessels. It is to be 160 feet long, with a propeller at each end, one of which is to be driven by two engines and the other by one.

The Ozark, of which Captain John J. Edson is master, is the regular United States mail packet, leaving for all points on White river to-morrow. The Ozark makes close connection at Duvall's Bluff with the train for Little Rock. Mr. Jim McDonald is the presiding genius of the office, and Tom Halliburton is his second.

We have more than once referred to the advantages possessed by our city, in the way of repairing steamers, over places higher up the river. No better evidence of our ability to do work of this kind is wanted than a visit to the steamer Myrtle, now lying at our landing. Captain Wm. Hardwick, her owner, has had her put in repair, under his own eye, and the job, taken as a whole, is a credit to our city. Twenty-eight new floor timbers have been placed in her, and a sister kelson has been run through her from stem to stern; twenty-four new outriggers have been added to her, and she has been keyed between the knuckle and upper clamps with keys ten feet long—five on each side. Every piece of unsound timber has been removed and replaced with new. Her cabin has been extended aft, and six large and comfortable double state rooms have been added to her ladies' cabin, while all her state rooms in the forward cabin have been enlarged. Captain Hardwick has purchased an entire new outfit for his packet in this city, and her bedding, linen and pantry ware will be of the very best.

The Myrtle was inspected yesterday and passed A No. 1. The finishing touches are now being added to her cabin, and she will depart for Vicksburg and all points on the Yazoo river on Saturday next, carrying the trip of the Dan Able and the United States mail. Billy Fields and Stack Lee will be found upon the landing to-day to receive freight for the Myrtle.

A WARNING TO THE PUBLIC.—The public will take notice that there is as much difference between Petro oil and Petroleum as between white and black. Petro oil is truly non-explosive. We do not sell petroleum—we sell Petro oil, and warrant it to be non-explosive. You must use the Lighthouse burner, and not mix it with coal oil. If any one offers any oil for sale in the city and calls it Petro oil, you may know it is a counterfeit, for we hold the exclusive right for the manufacture and sale of Shelby county, and will punish all who infringe on our rights to the extent of the law.

COTTON CULTURE.

From the New York Bulletin.]

The late decline in the price of cotton, and the serious embarrassments which that fact involves have not received that share of public attention to which they are so highly entitled. It is needless to enumerate the immense difficulties with which the cultivation of cotton is now encompassed, suffice it to say, that the crisis is of such a grave character as not only to endanger our ascendancy in the cotton marts of the world, but to seriously imperil one of the chief sources of our national wealth. Our shipping, manufacturing and agricultural interests are all jeopardized, and yet we see no effort made to regain the position which we occupied previous to our civil war. This apathy is inexcusable. It is not a question of sectional or partisan sentiment, but of national importance, and is imperative that some thoroughly organized plan be adopted by which the disaster with which we are threatened may be averted.

When the Rebellion broke out, and the Lancashire mills were almost at a stand still, there was inaugurated in England a "Cotton Supply Association," with a view of extending the culture of cotton to all countries, where the soil and climate promised remunerative returns. Large sums of money were raised for the purpose, and the Government instructed all its consular agents to do everything in their power to further the views of the Association. These efforts have so far been crowned with success, that England is now almost independent of its supplies from this country, as the recent serious decline in prices fully testifies. Nor are these efforts even now relaxed. At a recent meeting of the Executive Committee, dispatches were had from all the cotton centers of India, in which the prospects of the growing crop were described as unusually fine; and in these letters we gain an insight into the varied labors of the Association, and the beneficial effects attendant thereon to the planting interests. Thus, we find that the Indian Government offers a grant of 15,000 rupees ($8,000) as premiums at the proposed cotton exhibition at Broach; that the Egyptian cotton sent out under the auspices of the Association had proved most excellent; that interesting experiments under experienced management were in progress, whereby cotton cultivation would be further improved; that additional commissioners were to be appointed to superintend the extension of its culture, and that the numerous lines of railway and the improved navigation of many of the streams would facilitate the transportation of the staple, and have a most beneficial effect on the cultivation. Nor is this the full extent of its labors. Dispatches were read from South America, Africa, Egypt, Macedonia, and Jamaica detailing the progress made, and in all cases where seed, cotton gins, or other assistance was asked, in each case was it cheerfully given.

Why should we not at once avail ourselves of the same means. There is an ample field for such an organization. The main points to which it would direct its efforts would be the removal of the present onerous tax; the encouragement of immigration; the investigation of some method by which the ravages of the worm could be prevented; and, lastly, a measure might be devised by which under proper guarantees an amount of banking capital could be loaned to the different States, from the want of which so much depression now prevails.

If this Association were properly organized no one can doubt the beneficial results that would attend its labors, and we might speedily regain the position we once possessed of being the chief cotton producing country in the world.

TEXAS TONIC SY[illegible]
A Vegetable Compound for the Rapid and Never Failing Cure of CHILLS & FEVER OR FEVER & [illegible]
Every Poison has its Antidote—Every Disease has its Cure
THE people of the Mississippi Valley, and throughout the entire South, have long felt the necessity for, and want of, a SAFE, CERTAIN AND RELIABLE REMEDY, as a substitute for Quinine, Strychnine, and other poisonous Drugs, for the cure of Fever and Ague, or Chills and Fever. We claim, [illegible] Texas Tonic Syrup has supplied this want and accomplished this purpose. Its Tonic, Alterative and Antiperiodic qualities are such that none can possibly be disappointed in its effects. [illegible] its own merits, therefore it is [illegible]. A single trial is all that is needed to stamp this remedy as the greatest [illegible].
The ingredients of which this Medicine is composed are simple productions of nature abounding upon certain streams in the State of Texas, and were ever used by the Aborigines of that State as a specific for Fevers of all kinds, and especially Fever and Ague, which they never failed to cure.
A celebrated physician, acquainted with these facts, has furnished us his theory upon this important subject, and hence the product properly named TEXAS TONIC SYRUP, which we now offer to the public as a specific and POSITIVE cure for Fever and Ague, or Chills and Fever, no matter of how long standing.
Having had indubitable evidence of its prompt and certain effects from the testimony of a multitude of respectable citizens, we do not hesitate to recommend this preparation in all cases of Fever and Ague and Chills and Fever; indeed, from the [illegible] our possession of its intrinsic value, it would not be too much for us to state that when the directions are strictly complied with we warrant a cure in every case, where it is tried. It is pleasant to the taste and the cheapest Medicine in the world. Therefore, in truth, it may be declared the day is not far distant when it must be appreciated and used in every household where Fever and Ague or Chills and Fever is found to exist.

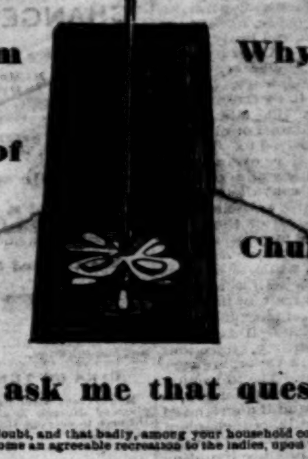
FINLEY'S CHURN DASHER



Got one of them yet? Got one of what, Sir?
Why, one of the "Finley Churn Dashers."
Why do you ask me that question, sir?
BECAUSE one of them is needed, no doubt, and that badly, among your household conveniences, that the laborious and troublesome item of churning may become an agreeable recreation to the ladies, upon whom such duties usually devolve.
What's the Article? What's the description? What's it do, pray, sir?
Well, it is simply two screw propeller wheels attached to the lower end of a staff or handle which is placed in the "old fashioned" wooden or tub churn, and worked in the same manner precisely as the "old dasher"; these two wheels revolve rapidly and in counter directions at every up and down movement of the "Dasher," completely disengaging and cutting the cream into the minutest particles; while at the same time by aid of the "air beds" in each division of the wheels, keeps the whole body of the cream supplied with constant currents of fresh air, thus securing by the simplest process the true principles of "Good Butter Making."
Well, sir, is the thing simple—very simple?
Why, so very simple when seen, that not a word of explanation is necessary. Why "Biddy," "Aunt Dinah," or the eight year old child can both UNDERSTAND and use it, and couldn't for their lives imagine any other purpose for it.
Is it Durable and Substantial, sir?
It is made of the best Sheet Zinc—will not rust—strong—neat, and with ordinary care, will last as long as you and your grand children's children.
Long enough. Well, my friend, does it make GOOD BUTTER and [illegible]
It does not only make GOOD BUTTER, but about ONE-FOURTH MORE, to a given amount of cream, under like circumstances of quality and temperature, and in about ONE HALF THE TIME required by the use of the "old dasher." [illegible], however, quite ready to confess that it will NOT make Butter as QUICK as the boasted "Five Minute" and other "lightning" Churns, nor would we have it so quick, for the very plain and simple reason that the extraordinary rapid operation of such Churns yields as the result a MASS OF SOFT, LARDY, UNINVITING STUFF, instead of those RICH, GRAINY, WAXY, FIRM and LIVELY QUALITIES which constitute REAL GOOD BUTTER.
Well, sir, I have one of the "old fashioned" Churns—an old family relic of several generations past, and do I understand you that nothing more is required than one of the "FINLEY DASHERS?"
Nothing else whatever to complete the SIMPLEST, CHEAPEST, and MOST SATISFACTORY CHURNING APPARATUS that the world has yet produced.
Well, friend, once more—excuse me, sir—right well pleased, but a little suspicious. Can't help it. Are you sure this is not one of the Yankee humbugs—one of the "Machine Nutmegs," or one of the "Hub of the Universe Hams" sort of things; such hams that would, to LOOK UPON, bring a "broad guage" grin to the phiz of the most fastidious epicure—but with somewhat of a change in the "programme and scenery" when casting a sly peep at the cook after many fruitless efforts to slice a broil or fry. Ugh! such looks and such "longing" as all understand who have been "thusly done for."
Methinks I discover a mutual sympathy, a similarity of experience and a similar determination to avoid all humbugs, especially with the "Yankee" prefix. My friend, "FINLEY'S DASHER" IS NO HUMBUG—not a bit of it, sir. 'Tis a "home invention," and will, upon its own true merits, win its way into every household in the land, North and South. The Dasher is open to competition, and for "common sense," every day practical use and household economy, we say to Yankee or anybody else, BEAT IT IF YOU CAN.

AGENTS WANTED EVERYWHERE
FOR "FINLEY'S CHURN DASHER."
The FINLEY CHURN DASHER combines so fully the requisite qualities of simplicity, economy and practical utility, as to place it at the head of all other implements for similar purposes, and cannot fail to recommend itself most forcibly to the common sense and good judgment of the housekeepers everywhere, and to be regarded as one of the indispensable household articles, and more especially so with the people of the Southern States, who now feel so greatly the need of time, money and labor saving inventions.
Remember, that the retail price has been fixed at FOUR DOLLARS each, everywhere; and that the proprietor intends to hold and exercise the exclusive right to the manufacture and sale of the Dasher for the whole United States, and cannot therefore be obtained through any other than authorized agencies.
Remember, that the wholesale price to Agents has been fixed at a figure to insure a large profit to such Agents as may handle it with industry and tact, and that such agents can, with a cash capital of one hundred to one thousand dollars, make more money in less time, with less trouble, and with less risk than many others all around you with thousands of capital invested in other pursuits.
Remember, that active, stirring, energetic men, who are willing to "pull off coat and roll up sleeves," CAN, with a small capital, realize one hundred per cent. profit at every thirty to sixty days—inducement enough, certainly; and we are prepared to offer just such to the right sort of men. Understand distinctly, however, that no such promises are made to "lazy men," for they can't do it. Away, then, with complaints of "hard times," "no employment," "no situations." Come and get employment and good pay—employment for thousands—employment both pleasant and highly remunerative. The field of operation is as wide as the whole country—choose your own grounds—States, Counties, Cities, Towns and the Rural Districts—North, South, East and West—all lie before you. Can visit them on foot and on horseback, by wagon, railroad and steamboat, and it will pay you well to do it, for wherever you may go with the Dasher, you will find ready customers, and you will soon laugh at the "lazy loafer" who creeps around all day long crying "hard times and worse coming." Young men, "accept the situation" to make your own living, and by your own individual efforts, and here is a good opportunity of doing so. Throw overboard "false pride," "politics," "fashion," "loo teams," "golden dreams" and "down east," and take hold of this work with a vim; "drive it" ahead, and soon the empty purse will be full—running over—and friends will spring up by the legion.
Remember, that in addition to the large profits there are TWO PRIZES at stake, and we want you to get one or both of them, TWO HUNDRED and FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS.
Remember to call and see us at once, or write for particulars, with stamp for answer.

AT HERNANDO, MISS, OCTOBER, 1867

THE FIRST DRAWING, which took place at Hernando, Miss., on the 15th instant, was attended with unusual success, when it is remembered that but a few weeks elapsed from the inception of the enterprise to that event. Seventeen thousand dollars worth of tickets having been sold, a like amount of property was drawn for, under the supervision of gentlemen selected by the ticket holders present. The utmost harmony and good feeling pervaded those present, and, as will be seen from the subjoined certificate of the managers, the affair was conducted to a close in a most gratifying and satisfactory manner.

HERNANDO, Miss., June 15, 1867.

We hereby certify, that the above report of the first drawing of the Southern Asylum is correct, and that the proceedings were characterized by a spirit of fairness and justice unsurpassed by any drawing of which we have any knowledge. The managers of the Company placed the tickets and wheels under our sole management and control.
